DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-4 and 6 are pending in this application, which is an RCE of Serial Number 10/676258. Amended claims 1 and 6, previously unentered, have now been entered.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/13/06 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 1 line 12, the phrase "sufficient to break an Si-N bond" is confusing as there is no Si-N bond to break in the instant claims. Clarification and appropriate amendments are requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-4, 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Usuki (5,914,151). Usuki discloses a method of forming a silica protective film, under low temperature conditions (col.1 lines 7-19) in which a polysilazane is formed on a substrate and subsequently oxidized (col.2 line 58 – col.3 line 2). The polysilazane is irradiated with ultraviolet rays including an excimer lamp having a wavelength of 172 nm (col.12 lines 15-34) and may be done simultaneously with the insertion of the precursor (col.8 lines 40-55). However, the reference fails to teach the claimed energy.

It is well known in the art to vary energy as higher energies produce a more vigorous reaction but with the disadvantage of thermal damage. One skilled in the art would consider the advantages and disadvantages in determining the energy of the excimer lamp to obtain the desired characteristics of the film. Hence, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have determined the optimum value of a cause effective variable such as beam energy through routine experimentation in the absence of a showing of criticality.

Art Unit: 1762

The limitations of claims 2-4 and 6 have been addressed above.

Turchan (6,274,206) discloses a method of coating a tool or insert at low temperatures and pressures with a diamond, diamond-like carbon (DLC), Cubic Boron Nitride (CBN), B.sub.4 C, SiC, TiC, Cr.sub.3 C.sub.2, TiN, TiB.sub.2, Si.sub.3 N.sub.4 and cCN material (col.9 line 55 – col.10 line 16). In one embodiment, a laser is utilized to direct energy at the surface of a substrate to mobilize and vaporize a constituent element (e.g., carbide) within the substrate (e.g., steel) wherein the laser can be an excimer laser (col.24 line 55 – col.25 line 42).
